

Sympathy

UFO

So you've seen the sunrise on the Nile solved the mystery of the mona lisa's smile you proclaim your innocence what you saying makes no sense to me at all So you help the needy and the sick heard confessions of a lunatic my eyes are growing dim ghost shadows closing in around me now
and there ain't no sympathy at all just a sea of angry faces staring at me
there ain't no sympathy at all I gotta find someone
to make me happy so you've scattered roses at Versailles wiped a teardrop from an old man's eye seeing you in such distress I'm afraid I must confess that boys don't cry
and there ain't no sympathy at all
there ain't no sympathy at all
Solo
and there ain't no sympathy at all
I gotta find someone,
gotta find someone,
gotta find someone
