

Fine Lines White Lies

Uh Huh Her

Heartbreaks are nothing new,
But you make me have faith in you
I don't believe you anymore
But you think that you want to show me the way

I find it on my own, there's nothing to say
I don't believe you anymore
And you can't rely on anything
Rely, oh, on anything

Heartbreaks are nothing new, but you make me have faith in you
I don't believe you anymore
Heartbreaks are nothing new, but you make me have faith in you

Peace in the night, all I ever really want
All I ever wanted was your heart
But you tell me, pretty lies,
All I ever wanted was your heart

All our sisters, all our dreams they kick alive
They are runaways, fine lines, white lies
All our sisters, all our dreams they kick alive
They are runaways, fine lines, white lies

Heartbreaks are nothing new, but you make me have faith in you
I don't believe you anymore
Heartbreaks are nothing new, but you make me have faith in you
