

Philosophy

Uh Huh Her

I'm Sitting here along the west side
I think of all the ways that I could fuck with you right now
When I wrap my head around you
You couldn't be more trouble I don't need to lift a finger

Jump in the hole
I dig it for you
You're in a hole
I dig it for you

You live inside the space between life
Your crazy world is so small when you think about it
You can take your shit out on me
Look in the mirror then you see what I see

Jump in your hole
I dig it for you
Jump in the hole

I'll tell you my philosophy
It's new reality
I have gone to hell and back
We suffered through enough

Don't tell me your religion
The price to pay is freedom
I have gone to hell and back
Your ship was always sinking

You love to have your way to know it
What's love got to do when you think about it?
Say it's time to stop pretending
Things they come and they go that's the way it is

You like your living
It's just beginning
I'm not the one to blame,
I'm not the one

Jump in your hole
I dig it for you
Jump in the hole
I dig it for you

I'll tell you my philosophy
It's new reality
I have gone to hell and back
We suffered through the night

Don't tell me your religion
The price to pay is freedom
I have gone to hell and back
Your ship was always sinking

You scream it out from the mountaintops
You throw us all under, for what?
Your actions, they speak louder than words

Was it enough,to drag us all down,into your world?

Jump in your hole
I dig it for you
Jump in the hole
I dig it for you

I'll tell you my philosophy
It's new reality
I have gone to hell and back
We suffered through the night

Don't tell me your religion
The price to pay is freedom
I have gone to hell and back
Your ship was always sinking
