

Same High

Uh Huh Her

As your shadow falls, you've come to keep me warm
Oh I cannot speak, the silence turns me on
Oh my eyes will close, I fail to think I'm wrong
But the weakest hearts are swallowed in a trance

We're on the same high
It's in stereo, it's the same soul
We're on the same high
So we'll carry on, it's the same song
We're on the same high
We're on common ground, it's the same sound
We're on the same high
It'll carry on, it's the same song

And this sweet reward dominates the pain
As each breath we take suffers just the same
Lost inside a void, an audience of one
And all along we knew, we feel the same desire

It took so long to see
Who'd of thought
So long to see
We're on the same high
