

Boys Don't Cry

Ulrik Munther

Have you ever done something you can't change
Something you can never rearrange
I have, I have
Have you ever been so sad you can hardly stand
Lying on the ground, head in your hands
I have, I have

I can feel it all down deep inside
But oh, I wanna let these feelings rise

But boys don't cry, boys don't cry
I know it would be fine
But boys don't cry

Have you ever tried smile and hide your pain
Even though you're really not okay
I have, I have
Have you ever been caught in the pouring rain
Wondering if anything can ever feel the same, again

You try to be proud of who you are
But still, you've gotta let those teardrops fall, away

But boys don't cry, boys don't cry
I know it would be fine
But boys don't cry

Whoah, whoah, boys don't cry, boys don't cry
(2x)

Have you ever done something you can't change
Something you can never rearrange
I have, I have
Have you ever been so sad you can hardly stand
Lying on the ground, head in your hands
I have, I have

Whoah, whoah, boys don't cry, boys don't cry
