

Catch your dream and hang it to the wall
Take a look, what it wants to say, just to you

Dreamer, dream all your life, dream while you still have the time

I don't want to be the one that never dreams
I make my life to match my dreams my goals

Dream while you can, but don't waste your time
There's so much to do in your dream life
Take heed of dreams and make them your life
The dream always lives as long as you believe to dream

Dreamers are the ones that always fall to their feet
And they are always walking head up proud with no remorse

And they see the future shining bright, they are The ones that are not controlled by hate

Dream while you can, but don't waste your time
There's so much to do in your dream life
Take heed of dreams and make them your life
The dream always lives as long as you believe to dream
And we are ones that dare to live our life

Dreamers always have their faith but there are always ones that try to Kill the dream and tear down dreamers hope, just because they have lost their dream

Ones that have lost all their dreams will fade to the night
And dreamers last 'till they keep dreaming on, and they just

Make up their own life, and their destiny
Is shining so bright high in the sky

Dream while you can, but don't waste your time
There's so much to do in your dream life
Take heed of dreams and make them your life
The dream always lives as long as you believe to dream
And we are ones that dare to live our life
