

Fight the Time

Ultimatum

Where I'm now?
I can't recall how I came here
Ask the question, get no answer
Hope that I'm not far away I hope
That I'm alive

Where am I now, would you tell me
Where did all those hours gone
I think I should be quiet now, I wait

Wake up soon
Oh my God, I think I'm not home
Look around and recognize this place
Images of the last night come to me again

I fear to open my eyes I don't think I should be here
Try to fake that I'm asleep

I hear the whispering

Here to laugh to joy to embrace the life
Here we are and we will stay for a while
One night fun and dawn is so pale to me
It is time for us to feel it again

Fight against the time

Last survivors
Rise when I hear distant foghorn
From the corner of the room
Calling for us to continue
Where it ended last night

I hope we won't
Never grow too old
For this mad rollercoaster
It would be so shame for us,

and for the local bars

Here to laugh to joy to embrace the life
Here we are and we will stay for a while
One night fun and dawn is so pale to me
It is time for us to feel it again

Fight against the time

All thou wheel of time turns by
I take it all I can
I will use my time as fit
I won't waste another day
No way
I hope we won't
Never grow too old
For this mad rollercoaster
It would be so shame for us,

and for the local bars

Here to laugh to joy to embrace the life
Here we are and we will stay for a while
One night fun and dawn is so pale to me
It is time for us to feel it again

Here to laugh to joy to embrace the life
Here we are and we will stay for a while
One night fun and dawn is so pale to me
It is time for us to feel it again

Fight against the time
