Lifting up from this Balance under pressure shifts Feel the gears slip Feel the gears slip Strain Nothing ever lifts Nothing ever lifts Drain Nothing ever shifts Nothing ever shifts Wiping sweat from battered brow Dreaded thinking living now Feel the years shift Feel the years shift Strain Nothing ever lifts Nothing ever lifts Drain Nothing ever shifts Nothing ever shifts Again And I've been here before Bled Again The machine turns out more Blackened from the dirt My vision seared and blurred Here beneath the wheel My face against the steel Clutching at the earth Where is my support Falling into line Is losing what is mine Falling into line Losing what is mine Here beneath the wheel My face against the steel
