As I was walking among the fires of hell, delighted with the enjoyment of genius, which to angels look like torment and insanity, I collected some of their proverbs: thinking that as the saying used in a nation mark its character.

So the proverbs of hell shew the nature of infernal wisdom better than any description of buildings or garments. When I came home: on the abyss of the five senses, where a flat sided steep frowns over the present world, I saw a mighty Devil folded in black clouds, hovering on the sides of rock, with corroding fires He wrote the following sentence now perceived by the minds of men & read by them on earth: how do you know bu ev'ry bird that cuts the airy way, is an immense world of delight, clos'd by your senses five?
