Umbra Et Imago

The cross supports your boby
Your skin is coverd with weals
You reel beneath my caressing
When it hurts you
You feel alive

Fall Baby, fall
Don't be afraid
I'm always there to hold you

The fire on your body
is burning in my soul
We are swimming together
in a current of desire
Let us rise

Fall Baby, fall
Don't be afraid
I'm always there to protect you
Love me or leave me
Belive me or leave me
And now, right now
I want to fuck you

Fuck you
