

Don't Stop to Learn

Umbra Et Imago

How ever will your heart turn

what ever suffering you see will try to make you free hold on living heart give every day a new start

Hold your myth alive hold it like a mistres or a holy wife take your love like a last kiss your faith don't miss let your mission burn

swim with me across the misty sea hold though the holy key let your secret feelings burn
