

Never

Umbra Et Imago

A day made me see all real
Now I try to keep all clear
You're died in your best years
I don't try to grieve and shed wild tears
I'll never forget your name
I try to live on and do - all the things same
I don't feel my loneliness on empty days
But I fill each waking hour in useful ways
I'll never waste my time
I'll never forget your smile
I always hold you in my near
I try to comfort and cheer
You'll ever be in our hearts
And souls - you'll never be alone though I hear you cry
I'll never be afraid to die
I'll try to exist again
And try to return the pain
Never - never
