

S.O.S.

Una Healy

Why does everything look so easy?
Always feel a little in-superior
Like every picture got me needing
Just don't match my interior, wait
I must be dreaming, but not the type you wake up feeling right
Can somebody come and save my soul?

I wanna shout "won't someone help me?"
I'm sending out for an S.O.S. babe
I'm breaking down, but I'm too shy to say
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe

So every day has got me kneeling
Been torn apart by this precious, foolish pride
And only you can give me healing
'Cause only you, it's only you on my side
I'm running out of time, I'm suffering inside

I wanna shout "won't someone help me?"
I'm sending out for an S.O.S. babe
I'm breaking down, but I'm too shy to say
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe

I wanna cry but it just won't come out
I want the tears but the tears won't fall down
I need your hand but I just can't reach out

I wanna shout "won't someone help me?"
I'm sending out for an S.O.S. babe
I'm breaking down, but I'm too shy to say
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe

I wanna shout "won't someone help me?"
I'm sending out for an S.O.S. babe
I'm breaking down, but I'm too shy to say
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
I need you now, I wanna shout "S.O.S." babe
