

The Unconquered One

Unanimated

King of demons and eternal night embrace me now iwth thy wings of twelve

i shall ride into the eternal night far beyond and to the endlessness thy radiant light enlights my path

entranced by your mysteries as i fall deeper into the bottomless abyss

the burning winds scorch my soul and guides me to the other side

bringer of light
thou who guides my path
from your burning mouth
i hear the call

call upon the infernal plague darkened cruelty, lust and war spread your fever upon all man embrace me wings of twelve

king of demons embrace me now
as i ride into the endless night

in the vacuum of no return i am cursed forever more embrace me wings of twelve!
