Livin' the Dream

Uncle Kracker

Funny how things change Yet they always stay the same And the simple things in life Just get tossed into the flame

But I been down that road before When you just gotta roll the bones I ain't got much money in my pocket But I didn't leave none at home

Here I go again on my own Goin' down the only road I've ever known Like a drifter I was born to walk alone And I'll keep livin' my life, livin' the dream on my own

A million roads to go And a million roads behind me I've heard so many stories told But the good ones never find me

I ain't got no crystal ball That's showin' me the way And I don't know which way I'm goin' But I'll get there someday, singin'

Here I go again on my own Goin' down the only road I've ever known Like a drifter I was born to walk alone And I'll keep livin' my life, livin' the dream on my own

And after all that I've been through There's nothin' left to prove I'm startin' to believe We can all live the dream One day at a time Yes, I'm startin' to believe We can all live the dream

Here I go again on my own Goin' down the only road I've ever known Like a drifter I was born to walk alone And I've made up my mind, I ain't wastin' no more time

Here I go again on my own I'm goin' down the only road I've ever known Like a drifter I was born to walk alone And I've made up my mind, I ain't wastin' no more time

Here I go again on my own Goin' down the only road I've ever known Here I go again on my own Goin' down the only road I've ever known Like a drifter I was born to walk alone But I'll keep livin' my life, livin' the dream on my own
