

Face Of A Lie

Under The Flood

You couldn't get another dime out of life
Without the limelight, another trip in the night
Will it make it allright?
It took a second to find that you were one of their kind
Don't forget about me
We all started at the bottom of the barrel
Sympathized with the way things could have been
We all tried from the moment we were able,
To deliver you what you couldn't do

But I see the way it's changing you

Don't lie, Don't even try and hide
Forget pride are you lookin me right in the eyes
This life we gave isn't live or die
You lived twice well you're lucky to be alive

You like to say that luck doesn't exist
You make your own luck, well how did that end up?
With every door shut, it was easy to find that you had run out of time

Don't forget about me
We all see what it's like to turn your back on
The one reason you were given a second chance
Believing you're the reason this came to be
Believe me we're the reason you're breathing

But I see the way it's changing you
It's the look in your eyes
And I see a different face than I knew
It's the face of a lie.

Don't lie, Don't even try and hide
Forget pride are you lookin me right in the eyes
This life we gave isn't live or die
You're lucky you're alive
And I hate the way you're so blind
Well you're lucky to be alive
AND I hate the way you love yourself

How long until you fall?
It's been so long
You're too far gone
Will you start to believe
When your hope is gone
Will you finally see what you've done?

[Chorus]
