

I don't believe my eyes
Though it's right here in front of me
You cleverly disguise it well
Another taste of insanity would be the death of me

It's so wrong that we've come so far to fall
I'll just say goodbye
Now I'm right where I belong
I'll spread my wings and carry on
Hope you climb your walls
I wanted you to have it all
And when it's time I hope you'll fly

These complicated times
We're facing painful realities
But underneath the blame you'll find
You're another casualty of your hypocrisy

It's so wrong that we've come so far to fall
I'll just say goodbye
Now I'm right where I belong
I'll spread my wings and carry on
Hope you climb your walls
I wanted you to have it all
And when it's time I hope you'll fly

Someday I hope you'll find
The one who's buried inside
And step into the light
Only you can decide
I hope you realize
I never wanted this design
I hope you open your eyes

I don't believe my eyes
You're just another casualty

It's so wrong that we've come so far to fall
I'll just say goodbye
Now I'm right where I belong
I'll spread my wings and carry on
Hope you climb your walls
I wanted you to have it all

It's so wrong that you've come so far to fall
I'll just say goodbye
Now I'm right where I belong
I'll spread my wings and carry on
Hope you climb your walls
I wanted you to have it all
And when it's time I hope you'll fly
