

Show Some Emotion

Underworld

Wait you've gone too far
Who for God's sake who for God's sake
Who is it you think you are
You know you should, should, shoulda known better
Than take a chance
If you can't feel the rhythm
If you can't feel the rhythm don't dance!

You can't run
You can't hide
On the wings of a dove
Or behind your vicious pride (you better come through it)

Hey
You gotta silver tongue
You use it and you use it
And you'll get us all hung
You know you should, should, shoulda known better
Than take a chance
'Cause if you can't feel the rhythm
If you can't feel the rhythm don't dance!

You can't run
You can't hide
On the wings of a dove
Or behind your vicious pride (you better come through it)
