

The Hump

Underworld

Are you ready for a big drug
Are you ready for a big mac

Are you ready for the bullshit
Are you ready for the double back

Are you ready for overkill
Are you looking for the reasons

Are you ready the richest
To be rounded up for treason

Are you ready for the good thing
Are you ready for your ship to come
Are you ready to give up all right
Are you ready to keep hanging on
Are you ready for a puppet
To deliver us in pieces
Are you ready for a carrot
Are you ready for a jesus

Are you ready for the acid
Are you ready for the alkaline
Are you ready for the ecstasy
Are you ready the bottom line
Are you ready for the way out
Are you looking for a way back in
Are you ready for the phone to ring
Are you ready to try anything

We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump tonight
We're going over the hump
Were going over
because this is not my kingdom come
We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump tonight
We're going over the hump
We're going over
Because this is not my kingdom glory
We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump
We're going over the hump
We're going over
