

Birth of a Legion

Unearth

We stand in flames to defend this home
Not one
None can defeat us
To pave the way for the new - The birth of a legion
So natural
The order falls
So natural
The end archaic
Dissension breeds within their hearts
The haunting calls of devastation
To stand this ground - stand our ground
A steadfast gathering
Blunt force to erase all that we've known
To witness this distance between us
Change of Flame
The Birth of a Legion
You threw it all away
