

Eyes of Black

Unearth

Fall into line - upon creation - There is hell to pay
Fall into line - life of the mundane - There is hell to pay

Time: Our vengeful warden
Existence brings forth pain and loss
Make head of all the costs for your end is drawing near

Your end is drawing near

Through all I've seen
These eyes have turned to black
Stonewalled as my credence falls
These eyes have turned to black

Fall into line- death and disease - There is hell to pay
Shatter this life - all consuming - There is hell to pay

Through all I've seen
These eyes have turned to black
Sonewalled as my credence falls
These eyes have turned to black

The end is drawing near - forever black

Your end is near

Through all I've seen
These eyes have turned to black
Stonewalled as my credence falls
These eyes have turned to black

Forever black
