

The legend tells a story of a man who challenged nature he built his dream
but he didn't respect the rules

I will escape out of this world
I will escape out of my time with every breath I feel the conclusion with every breath I dream my dream

I spread my wings and fly away
I brave the nature and catch the wind but I won't break the agreement with the sun

No more will I feel like a prisoner no more memories about the things that I have done the time has come and I will turn my life the time has come because the wind is right

I spread my wings and fly away
I brave the nature and catch the wind
but I can't break the agreement with the sun

I fall and I enjoy this moment
no earth
and I can touch the clouds

I spread my wings and fly away
I brave the nature and catch the wind
but I can't break the agreement with the sun

I spread my wings and fly away
I brave the nature and catch the wind
but I don't break the agreement with the sun

I spread my wings
and fly away
I catch the wind
but I don't break the agreement with the sun

Icarus

I spread my wings and fly away
