

Fight For The Wings

Unicorn

She stands in front of me Smiling
Listening to my tale the Reaper
and judges what you have done living
tell her you deserve
the reward

She'll confer with the still
and listen to the storm She'll confer with the still and listen to the sea

Fight for the wings
till the time you receive the gift to be free

In life we've got to fight stand up and a hero you'll become forever

Remember you my words
and listen to the storm
remember you my words
and listen the sea

Fight for the wings
till the time you receive
the gift to be free
Fight for the wings
to deserve in the sky
the secret of flying

Fight for the wings
'cause the battle begins when you start to live
Fight for the wings
'cause the fight's just begun and there's no return

Fight...
the gift to be free
you've got to be free
the battle begins
and become a king..
