

Heaven's fallin' down

Unicum

I opened my eyes and take a look a round
Wanted to see something but there's nothing found
Through dust and smoke just rain's falling down
Like tears of dead, like speak of dumb

Heaven's falling down in tears
Blood is pouring from the sky
Hate will show us our fears
So please tell me: WHY?!

I've got no hope, there's nothing left
Got no future, no place to rest
My bones, my thoughts, my fears, my pain
I've got no feelings, but all the blame

Thunder's fighting with the fire
Dancing shadows close around me
All i have is desire
Longing for something i'll feel

Heaven's falling down in tears
Blood is pouring from the sky
Hate will show us our fears
So please tell me: WHY?!
