

You came to my doorstep when I was still real young you tried to recruit me and made me speak in tongues told me there was only one you said if I didn't pray with you I 'd go to hell and I'd better repent right now I did as you said 'cause right then I was real scared man I just want ed out "I want to see for myself a miracle cure a bleeding statue the truth is surely out there but whom's in control as destiny unfolds, believe in what you will 'cause you're free to decide if I haven't felt it probably isn't there my faith in science I just cannot hide, I should exist and then so should you our ideas differ but which one is the truth I don't need another to lead me through I'll learn what I can until my rebirth "I want to see for myself f a miracle cure a bleeding statue the truth is surely out there but who's in control as destiny unfolds" You want to control the world imposing your will rejecting rational thought what is real is not relative and untrue according to you don't try to corrupt my mind it won't work
