

Midnight Train

Union J

I would run one million miles to the moon
If I knew that you'd be there too
Will you be there too?

I would cross oceans and fields for your touch
The sound of your voice ain't enough
It's never enough

I'm running out the door into the dark
Guided by the beating of your heart
Stay right where you are tonight

You have never felt so far away
If I don't have you now I'll go insane
Stay right where you are
I'm on a midnight train

I will crawl, swim through the desert alone
No footprints to lead me back home
Never going back home

Your body is a river, yeah,
It's twisting and it's turning
I miss you and I miss the way
You let me watch it burn, yeah

Your body is a river, yeah
It's twisting and it's turning
I miss you, yeah, I miss you
So I'm running running running

I'm running out the door into the dark
Guided by the beating of your heart
Stay right where you are tonight
You have never felt so far away
If I don't have you now I'll go insane
Stay right where you are
I'm on a midnight train
Midnight train

I would cross oceans and fields for your touch
The sound of your voice ain't enough
Nothing is ever enough

I'm running out the door into the dark
Guided by the beating of your heart
Stay right where you are tonight

You have never felt so far away
If I don't have you now I'll go insane
Stay right where you are
I'm on a midnight train
I'm on a midnight train
I'm on a midnight train
Midnight train
