

Never Change Me

Unisonic

So here we're talking again tonight,
and you say nothing is alright for you.
That things could all be so much better,
if I would choose a different way.

There's one thing you should know
before I turn to go:
You've pulled the trigger on a bomb and the timer's going crazy.

No! You'll never change me tonight,
'cos so far I'm doing alright.
You'll get the best of me,
but you will never change me at all.

Heaven knows what I've gone through and the situation's getting worse.
The same old game, it drives me crazy.

I need a place to hide
before I kiss the sky.
You've got my back to the wall,
but it never gets you anywhere.

No! You'll never change me tonight,
'cos so far I'm doing alright.
You'll get the best of me,
but you will never change me, no!

You'll never change me tonight,
'cos so far I'm doing alright.
You'll get the best of me,
but you will never change me,
never change me at all.

Don't need a reason why.
Now go and kiss the sky.
This is our last goodbye.

You've got your ass on a bomb, and the timer's going...

No! You'll never change me tonight,
'cos so far I'm doing alright.
You'll get the best of me,
but you will never change me, no!

You'll never change me tonight,
'cos so far I'm doing alright.
You'll get the best of me,
but you will never change me,
never change me at all.
