

Sad Life

United Flavour

Help me take a break
From my sad life ...

My lovely, my honey
My life is a battlefield.
(Need you to) Be lovely, nice to me
'cause I need a moment of cease.
So, when I'm getting on the telephone
And calling on you, babe,
Please do not mind this sad tone of mine.

Calling you let me in, let me in,
Open your arms, let me in
('cause) I need it desperatly...

Calling you let me in, let me in,
Open your heart, let me in
('cause) I need it desperatly...

Help me take a break
From my sad life ...

So lovely, oh honey,
Is this cup of coffe with you
So sweet, so nice,
(that) I need it more than twice

Can you see how this is dear to me?, oh, babe.
Can you see how this is nice to me?, oh honey.

No matter how strong the warrior
No matter how though the fighter
I say, we all need sometime, some how
A litte bit of love to carry on, a bit of love to carry on...

Help me take a break
From my sad life ...
