

Follow Me Down

UNKLE

You're wondering if it's worth is
You're wondering what to do
You're asking me to see the future
And you want me to tell it to you
See, I can't believe it myself
So how can I prove it to you?
That this is all a dream

Okay follow me down
Come on you can trust me now
Okay follow me down
You can trust me now

Recurring thoughts of separation
Ones in which we are all alone
What keeps a heart from feeling homeless
Everywhere we look we see ourselves
I'm not inclined to think in braided spirals
I know I wasn't always this way
What do I do and is it really worth it?

Okay follow me down
Come on you can trust me now
Okay follow me down
Come on you can trust me now
Okay follow me down
You can trust me now
