As Yggdrasil Trembles

Unleashed

What troubles the earth, wind and sea What powers will be unleashed Is the age of mankind soon gone Are we prepared for what will come Whatever stirs beyond the dark has no shame Nothing will ever be the same

Battalions of the world are you ready? For the lasting cold and the darkness Battalions of the world are you ready?

What will the future hold What horrors are yet to unfold Is this our way to Odin's hall Are we prepared for the final call Whatever stirs beyond the dark has no shame Nothing will ever be the same

Battalions of the world are you ready? For the lasting cold and the darkness Battalions of the world are you ready? As the mighty Yggdrasil trembles Battalions of the world are you ready?

Our loyalty will be tested Allegiance to Midgard we have sworn As the mighty Yggdrasil trembles We stand to face the new dawn

Battalions of the world are you ready? For the lasting cold and the darkness Battalions of the world are you ready? As the mighty Yggdrasil trembles Battalions of the world are you ready? As the mighty Yggdrasil trembles Battalions of the world are you ready?
