The General

Unleashed

Up he rose & forth they went Into the battleground, fortress, tent Mountains, wilderness, fields & farm The soldier & the general arm in arm

Off they ride Side by side

"Through the travail of ages Midst the pomp & toils of war Have I fought, strove and perished Countless times under the stars As it through a glass and darkly The ageal stripe I see I fought in many guises, many names But it was always me..."

Off they ride Side by side

I was there in... Lived & died...

So up he rose & forth they went Into the battleground, fortress, tent Mountains, wilderness, fields & farm The soldier & the general arm in arm
