

Catherine His Beloved

Unshine

Catherine had a domain
Treasuries and fame
She had the face of an angel
At same

Amidst my maids
Of honour I pray
In the warrens of corridors
I restlessly stray

I miss you
I care for you
I praise you
I miss you
I care for you
I praise you
Catherine my heartblood

One night she woke up
From a sleep unquiet
Dressed herself and
Wended to windows

Who brought me this
Uneasiness and bliss
To mind and to heart
Of a loner in dark?

I miss you
I care for you
I praise you
I miss you
I care for you
I praise you
Catherine my heartblood

I give you myself
And all my trust forevermore
I give you my love
I'll be your one forevermore
You gave me the courage
And stayed with me through horrors of dark
You gave me my rebirth
I'll be with you 'til death of the stars

Quietly down
The stairs she floated
In her dark guise
To a garden of night

Someone is here
Still I feel no fear
Something unknown
Is coming over me

Dreamlike wood
She hastened barefoot

Home of deer
Still feeling no fear

I am very far
Away from my domain
Still this place has Beauty so plain

I give you myself
And all my trust forevermore
I give you my love
I'll be your one forevermore
You gave me the courage
And stayed with me through horrors of dark
You gave me my rebirth
I'll be with you 'til death of the stars

In blink of an eye
Years and years went by
Wood grew old
To ages forgotten untold
In one night
Seasons rose and died
Again and again
Returned at her sight

I always come
Back by the sun
Regain my force
And join with you, my one
I knew he'd come
Back by the sun
Regain my force
And join with me, my one

In front of her eyes
Disbelieving wide
A ghost beyond time
Crossed the edge of night
Inside of her soul
Thus she found springs(?) of gold
And finally found her love
And her real home

I always come
Back by the sun
Regain my force
And join with you, my one
I knew he'd come
Back by the sun
Regain my force
And join with me, my one

I give you myself
And all my trust forevermore
I give you my love
I'll be your one forevermore
You gave me the courage
And stayed with me through horrors of dark
You gave me my rebirth
I'll be with you 'til death of the stars
