

The Paradise Lost

Unshine

one in my heart is lost in the dark one is my love like a shining sun
a secret path
may guide me once to you to a serene grove
to a place of my home

I see the rise of mighty ones
I rejoice with moon and the sun
I see the fall of mighty ones
I mourn with moon and the sun beyond the veils of velvet green is the paradise unseen
behind the words of old and wise is the lost paradise

tell me of evertrees wood spirits and fairies tell me of dreams behind eyes timeless and divine
a secret path
to a serene grove
