The Paradise Lost

one in my heart is lost in the dark one is my love like a shining sun a secret path may guide me once to you to a serene grove to a place of my home

I see the rise of mighty ones I rejoice with moon and the sun I see the fall of mighty ones I mourn with moon and the sun beyond the veils of velvet green is the paradise unseen behind the words of old and wise is the lost paradise

tell me of evertrees wood spirits and fairies tell me of dreams behind eyes timeless and divine a secret path may guide me once to you to a serene grove to a place of my home
