There's a horned demon in my heart Eyes, - they are pitch-black I standing at the gates of hell I smell fear; the back of beyond is near

There's a horned demon in my heart Eyes, - they are pitch-black I hurt more than I thought I would I will not be cute, I will be a brute

I fail to weep; I have lost faith and hope I drift in the ocean of lost reliance I fail to weep; I have lost faith and hope I drift in the ocean of lost reliance I fail to weep; I have lost faith and hope I drift in the ocean of lost reliance I fail to weep; I have lost faith and hope I drift in the ocean of lost reliance Unsun
