

Endtime

Unter Null

Your time is coming to an end
Stop the chaos, don't pretend
You're failing all your prophecies
Your time has come
Your time has ceased

Clock is stopping
Slowing down
Time is ending
As you drown

Lying, cheating, two-faced whores
Wrecking all that isn't your's
Fall from grace to bathe in shit
The more you push
The more I resist

You call me worthless
You call me cruel
You make up lies so far from truth
Your life is wrought with vacancy
No concept of reality

Aren't you just so proud and wise?
Foolish and desensitized
You're sliding by on borrowed time
Looks like fate's not been so kind
