

Martyr

Unter Null

I've fallen down for you before
I will not do this anymore
There's been enough tears shed for you
If only you could see me now

I've wasted time on you once more
I cannot do this anymore
There's been enough life spent on you
If only you could see me now

I want to make you watch me bleed
As you drain the life from me
I want to make you watch me die
As you have so many times

And I have fought your sorry war
I won't do this anymore
There's been enough blood spilled for you
If only you could see me now

And you are rotten to the core
And you have played me for a whore
There's been enough love lost on you
If only you could see me now
