The Clang Of Shields Pt. I

Until Rain

Upon the world grey darkness Smelling of blood and corpse The candle wax in brightness Showed me the way to roam Creatures of the fall Tolls in the midst of life It took me years to find The mysteries of your soul

The age of madness
This realm is where I belong
Searching in darkness
Why are my answers wrong?

Bringing down the demons of this world This empire had to be destroyed A clang of shields I cannot avoid

It's a divine tragedy
Acting on the stage of insanity
We tried to kill our destiny
It's the beginning of absurdity

The age of madness
This realm is where I belong
Searching in darkness
Why are my answers wrong?

Bringing down the demons of this world This empire had to be destroyed A clang of shields I cannot avoid

Time to escape from this living hell The flood is coming I can hear the bells

Bringing down the demons of this world This empire had to be destroyed

A clang of shields
I cannot avoid
I cannot avoid it
My spirit abandoned my body
And it flew away
