

Love Love Love

Unwritten Law

I feel it coming on again
I feel the sudden rush from your touch kickin' in
I know you heard it all before
But when you leave I just want more You're the only thing I'm waiting for.

Cause in the evening there will be love, love, love
And in the morning there will be love, love, love.
In the beginning there was love, love, love. Yeah
Until the last breath we take there will be love, love, love,
love, love.

I wanna lay and watch you sleep
I wanna play your favorite songs till dawn and we won't stop til' we peak
I know I said it once before
When you leave I just want more
So won't you be my only yours

(Chorus)
