

Float Away

Up Dharma Down

Unusual yet so familiar
Surprising face I've never seen such glow
There is not one minute of refraction
You are my positive distraction

Level headedness versus heady bliss
What would you choose
Unbelievably, this feels so good to me
I've given myself away now

Taking leaps, clouds at my feet
Love makes you try anything once
Hues are better understood
But this is just a little too good

I am left believing, I thank you now for giving
Me the stars to chase around
There's no going back
I've fallen pretty bad
This is the sound of being found

Taking leaps clouds at my feet
Love makes you try anything once
You and I float away
Tracing the seas
