

New World

Up Dharma Down

Open up your eyes and see what colours
This life so golden
Shining so vast don't pass on all of this

Don't need to know what makes you tick
Just to know what makes you stick
Free like birds and spread your wings so high

Let them free those preconceptions oh
Let you be and lead you far to grow
Let them see what they don't need to know
Let us be the sacred sea of flow

Hold back never and
Stay in neverland
Leave whenever
And take my waiting hand
Building castles in the priceless sea of sand

I'm making a statement
I'm standing straight and
It's time to play with the new world revolution, baby
Welcome come to the new world
