You know I hate it Everytime you sleep talk through the night You say all the things That you also deny Though it's okay Cause we have our little infidelities in life It doesn't mean that it's also right To keep me out of this... Yeah You gotta hear me say Gotta hear me say no You gotta hear me say Gotta hear me say no Promise me you'll never Come back again Got nothing left for you Sleeptalk My love Sleeptalk My love When I've come so far When I've come so far When we've come so far And this is what you do And this is what you do When I've come so far You and I When I've And this is what you do To me What are you thinking of Hateful I love you Sleep talking Sleep talking
