

From Hell To The West

Upon This Dawning

I know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever

We are sailing around the desert
Moving from hell to the west
To the fucking west

Look at the skyline, we've found our way home
Look at that shining light
Light that will shine on us

I know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever

I can see the sun beyond these fucking walls
I will live my life like everyday is the last

I know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever
And I'm sure that wherever I go, I won't be alone

I've never seen
I've never seen the ocean
But I can feel the waves inside of me

Moving from hell to the west
To the fucking west

And I will see what my eyes have never seen

I know we'll be always together
This moment will last forever
And I'm sure that wherever you go, I won't be alone
And I will see what my eyes have never seen
And I will see what my eyes have never seen
