

The Encounter

Upon This Dawning

Let my soul burn in your empire
Bury my sins in my own grave

My body is getting cold again
The pain inside me is slowly dying

I want to let it go
And pray to a brand new god

Reborn

I want to do the same mistakes
This body is just a human cage

I want to let it go
And pray to a brand new god

Reborn

Let my soul burn in your empire
Bury my sins in my own grave
