

The Last Conception

Upon This Dawning

Fuck that shit
I never thought you could have been such a shame
Cause after all the time I spent without you
I finally got what kind of person you are
And I don't give shit
Fuck you bitch!

Too many things you refused to believe
Open your eyes and fight for the sake of god

If you lay alone
And wait until it'll be too late
If you wanna lay down
You better just run away

Shut your mouth theres nothing to say
I've never felt so rich until I found out I didn't need anythin g to live
So listen up do you fucking hear what I'm saying get the fuck u p

I'll always live my life with no regrets

If you lay alone
And wait until it'll be too late
If you wanna lay down
You better just run away
If you lay alone
And wait until it'll be too late
Well drown in hell
But all I need is next to me

We'll die alone
We'll drown in hell
We'll die alone
But you are next to me

If you lay alone
And wait until it'll be too late
If you wanna lay down
You better just run away
If you lay alone
And wait until it'll be too late
We'll drown in hell
But all I need is next to me
