

In The Morning

Urban Mystic

Last night, was beautiful
Experience, spiritual
Like an angel, spreading her wings
Ticipating, my whole life
To wake up, show you the sunrise
Shine down, on you and me

See you in the morning
Look at you, laying there
Finally got you in my bed
Only thought going through my head
See you in the morning
Sorry I, can't help but stare
Soon as your turning over
I'm gonna hold you closer
In the morning
The morning
Sho-bee-doo-wap, sho doo wap, under the cover
In the morning
The morning
Sho-bee-doo-wap, sho doo wap, under the cover

Excuse me, for speaking
While I'm sleeping, baby I'm dreaming
About you, grinding on me
It might before the early light, we start the countdown
The birds sing, it's bout to go down
Hello, your up under me
And I don't want no breakfast babe
Your everything that I need
Got to get you out my T-shirt
Before we go to work

See you in the morning
Look at you, laying there
Finally got you in my bed
Only thought going through my head
See you in the morning
Sorry I, can't help but stare
Soon as your turning over
I'm gonna hold you closer
In the morning
The morning
Sho-bee-doo-wap, sho doo wap, under the cover
In the morning
The morning
Sho-bee-doo-wap, sho doo wap, under the cover

Oh, oh
I sacrafise for you
Oh, oh
I'm stuck on pleasing you
Oh, oh
It's the best part of the day
Oh, oh
Leave a smile upon your face

See you in the morning
Look at you, laying there
Finally got you in my bed
Only thought going through my head
See you in the morning
The morning
Sho-bee-doo-wap, sho doo wap, under the cover
In the morning
The morning
