

Cut me clean
I'm ready to
To bleed for you
Do your incision and slice me deep,
To my skin, I know

When is it too much to be enough?
Where's the love?
Questions that need to be revealed
How long does it need to take?

Are you feeling happy now?
That you broke me in two somehow
Are you satisfied that I'm bleeding in the inside
And you're laughing in the outside?
You bitch

Gutted my soul
You're piercing in your knife
As you twist it in, yeah
Open myself up, now you start to feed
To my skin, I know

When is it too much to be enough?
Where's the love?
Questions that need to be revealed
How long does it need to take?

Are you feeling happy now?
That you broke me in two somehow
Are you satisfied that I'm bleeding in the inside
And you're laughing in the outside?
You bitch
