

I wait by the phone
I wait for the call that never comes
I play in your game
But the truth is it's driving me insane.

The moment I give
Is the moment you take
You're less than forgiven
The moment I wake
Is the moment you sleep
You're always receiving.

I'm taking my time
In time you'll get yours and I'll get mine
And you'll be surprised
On how things can get back at you sometimes,

'Cause I've played the fool
Now I'm breaking all your stupid rules
'Cause I've had enough of you
I'm leaving it all, I'm leaving you...

The moment I give
Is the moment you take
You're less than forgiven
The moment I wake
Is the moment you sleep
You're always receiving.

I wait for the call that never comes
Am I wasting my time
'Cause time takes it's crazy toll
