

Empire Builder

Urge Overkill

Empire
Empire, build it higher and higher He's coming for booty
On a black-eyed horse, he'll ride it up the wall They're gonna set you up pretty, Geronimo They'll stick you coal-washing at the cigar store for some firewater Well, Happy Thanksgiving

You know they're coming for burgers, chicken and wurst
You know their burgers really are the best the king of burgers Yeah, they got your empire-issue polyester vest Opportunity's knocking, your empire's building and you're ready to call it a day but the meal's already in motion Well on the train of tomorrow get out of the way

Empire Builder
Well you've got to hit the road pretty mama's boy like an empir e builder
Well you've got to say goodbye to your mama Like an empire builder
