

Your Friend Is Insane

Urge Overkill

She turned back inside again
And she's always been a friend
But she'll take you for that ride
It's what she laughs about

It's what she cries about
When she plays a sacred sound...huh
Well I know 'cause I've seen it in her eyes
Your friend's insane

She lives on her own pain (a world of pain)
She can't explain
Your friend's insane
Every time she calls your name

I see that you just feel pain
It's when the rubber oughtta hit the road
Because you've got to want out of it
Got to see that it's serious shit

When she speaks you wouldn't know
A fucked up Disney World she calls her own
Your friend's insane
She lives on her own pain (a world of pain)

She can't explain
Your friend's insane
Every time she calls your name
I see that you just feel pain

It's when the rubber hits the road
'Cause you've got to want out of it
Got to see that it's serious shit
When she sleeps you wouldn't know

A fucked up Disney World she calls her own
Your friend's insane
And you're fucked up even man
She can't explain

Your friend's insane, she's insane
